Nelson Westerberg Receives Commitment to Excellence Silver Award at Cartus 2007 Global Network Conference

(Elk Grove Village, Ill., October 29, 2007) . Nelson Westerberg, Inc. was recently honored for outstanding performance by Cartus at its 2007 Global Network Conference held October 22-23 in Denver. Each year, Cartus recognizes the companies and individuals that have worked to provide extraordinary service to its global customers and clients.

Nelson Westerberg was awarded the Global Network Commitment to Excellence Silver Award for its exceptional service results. This award is presented to the Global Network service provider who demonstrates excellent knowledge, principles, trust and service as selected by Supply Chain Management.

Service providers such as Nelson Westerberg continuously go the extra mile in their efforts, while demonstrating unrivaled dedication and performance, said Traci Morris, senior vice president of supply chain management of Cartus. As a vital extension of the Cartus team, we rely heavily on the support of our providers to help minimize the tension that our clients and their employees deal with when faced with such an important life decision as relocating. This award acknowledges the quality and professionalism that we have come to value from our service providers.
