NELSON WESTERBERG RECEIVES TOP SALES AWARDS AT ATLAS CONVENTION

ELK GROVE VILLAGE, Ill. -- (Nov. 2, 2007) Nelson Westerberg, Inc., one of the longest-established corporate relocation providers in the U.S., was recognized by Atlas Van Lines Nov. 7-10 during its 60th annual convention in Orlando, Fla. with two first-place awards for Sales Achievement and Sales Growth.

Nelson Westerberg's Illinois agency posted highest overall sales in excess of $13 million from among the Atlas Van Lines network of 400 agents nationwide. Sales figures accrue during the Atlas convention year from July 1, 2006 through June 30, 2007 and are cumulative.

"Corporate relocation fluctuates along with the housing market and the economy and it is challenging to sustain and exceed growth expectations from year to year," said Edward Pionke, Nelson Westerberg president. "We are proud of the first-place sales awards we've earned, and it says a lot about the quality of people we have on the front lines working alongside our customers."

In addition to its recognition for highest sales posted during a convention year, Nelson Westerberg also achieved highest overall growth in sales volume with an improvement of $2.3 million in sales over last year. Atlas presents this award to the agent that documents the most dramatic increase in sales over the previous year.

"Atlas's sales growth award is definitely a measure of success — but it's representative of much more than an agent's increase in sales," said Glen Dunkerson, president and chief operating officer of Atlas Van Lines. "Agents like Nelson Westerberg must exceed current customer satisfaction levels and develop new relationships and new opportunities in order to succeed."
